User Auth NextJS Database User Express User enters login info User creates an account User info is send to logic layer Logic layer sends the info from the database Database sends user info to logic layer Logic layer parses and sends useful info to the reach frontend User can login