Communication Express Database User React User creates a chat between members User types a message in chat Data is sent through to logic layer Chat logs are stored in database Chat logs are received from the database Front end displays chat to a user